Parent visits set

The faculty and administration of Appomattox County High School invites parents of students and interested community members to visit the school on Friday, Nov. 16.

This is an opportunity to see classes in session and become more aware of the total curriculum.

At noon the principals will meet with parents for a luncheon. A tour of the school and a curriculum overview will be presented. If you can visit Nov. 16, please notify the school (352-7146) so arrangements can be made with appropriate teachers.

Also, everyone is reminded of parent/teacher conferences scheduled for Monday, Nov. 19 from 1 to 5 p.m. It is hoped that all parents will take this opportunity to come to school and discuss the progress of their children.
